Fellow Chicago Tigers!

Fall 2016

With the new school year in full swing, we welcome you back from what we hope was an enjoyable and restful summer season!

In 1876, Chicago Princeton alums launched our club for the purpose of growing connections to each other and the University while serving the Chicagoland community. A mere 140 years later, we are one of the strongest Princeton alumni associations in the world, representing nearly 3,000 alums, spouses, parents, and kin. Thanks to the 65-strong outstanding, volunteer club leaders, the breadth and depth of events we sponsor throughout the year is a match for the extraordinary members and friends we serve.

Among the many events coming this fall we have a Princeton Club Diversity event (Oct.16), a fabulous precept on Virtual Reality with Professor Bob Kenyon S*80 (Oct.18), an Alumni Schools Committee Roundtable for Interviewers (Oct.24), a joint event with Stanford Business School featuring CEO of Trunk Club, Brian Spaly '99 (Oct.27), a once-in-a-decade Broadway Show called Hamilton (Oct.28), a private lunch discussion with Professor Mitchell Duneier (Nov.12) during the Chicago Humanities Festival, and an Indian Cooking Class co-hosted by the Asian American Alumni Association (A4P) (Nov.13) in celebration of Diwali. All these spectacular events, including the Annual Dinner on 4/26/17, are posted on www.princetonclubofchicago.org.

Please check frequently as events do sell out quickly! See the link below to read more about Club activities in the Fall 2016 Tiger Talk Newsletter.

How can you get involved? There are lots of ways. We have special interest groups and committees for Career-Networking, Young Alumni, Women's Network (PWN), Graduate Alumni, Community Service, Parents Committee, Alumni Schools Committee (ASC), LGBT and much, much more.

Please fill out the Volunteer Form below and get involved. Our club is welcoming and fun! If you aren't yet a member, please read our Membership letter, fill out the enclosed membership form and become a member today. Why not? Please see the links below.

Whatever your relationship to Princeton may be, we hope you participate in a meaningful way with our thriving community. We are privileged to have the greatest resource of all – each other. Thank you for continuing to cause our Princeton Club to be an exemplary Tiger entity in the heartland!

With Gratitude and Respect,

Robert J. Khoury '90

President, Princeton Club of Chicago
